

Integrating Mathematics and IEFA for Middle and High School Students

Participants will be introduced to middle and high school lessons that integrate IEFA and mathematics. The middle school lesson teaches rigid motion transformations using the Chippewa Cree Tribal Seal. The high school lesson uses data for the Montana Native American population to reinforce statistical concepts at the Algebra II or Math III level.